Summary This bill amends W.S. 23-1-703 (b) and 23-2-109 to award one preference point for their species of choice (sheep or moose) to any person who completes a WGFD-sponsored or Commission-approved hunter safety course.

HB0102 Status

HB0135 Hunting licenses-donation to grizzly bear attack victims

Died – Failed in TRW Committee

Department Impact Medium

Department Leads Nesvik

Sponsor(s) Representative(s) Greear, Flitner, Harshman, Lindholm, Salazar and Sommers and Senator(s) Agar, Bebout, Driskill, Hicks, Landen and Wasserburger

Summary This bill creates a new section (23-1-902), modeled after our current damage statute, which would allow an individual, or their representative, file a claim with the Department for payment to cover economic losses resulting from a grizzly bear attack. A new fund to cover claims, supplied by donations made by persons buying or applying for licenses, is created under 23-1-501. New subsections are added in 23-2-101 (Game animal and game bird fees) and 23-2-201 (Fish fees) to allow collection of donations from persons applying for or buying licenses. A minimum account balance of $50,000.00 is required before any claim can be awarded.

Died – No report prior to House Committee of the Whole Cutoff

Department Impact Medium

Department Leads Nesvik

Sponsor(s) Representative(s) Pelkey and Lindholm and Senator(s) Case and Von Flatern

Summary This bill modifies state statute 7-2-102 by adding new language and a new subsection.

The new language inserted into 7-2-102 is the phrase punishable by imprisonment. The new language creates a stipulation that an officer may arrest a person without a warrant when any criminal offense punishable by imprisonment is committed in the officer's presence or the officer has probable cause to believe a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment has been committed, that the person to be arrested has committed it and that the person, unless immediately arrested will not be apprehended, may cause injury to himself or others or damage to property, or may destroy or conceal evidence of the commission of the misdemeanor.

This bill adds a new subsection (iv) which allows for an arrest without a warrant, regardless if punishable by imprisonment or not, if a person presents a danger to himself or others, will injure or destroy the property of others, will not appear for future court proceedings, or will not accept the citation.

HB0144 Status
