Driving Directions: From Meeteetse, take state highway 290 about 7 miles west of town. Take the Wood River Road to the southwest at this point where the highway splits. Stay on this road another 18 miles or so until reaching the U.S. Forest Service Wood River campground. The Middle Fork enters the Wood just across the stream from the campground and extends upstream almost 5 miles to the mouth of Dundee Creek.