

Driving Directions: Though the segment is entirely on public land, the most direct route to it is through private property. If you don't have permission, it is possible to travel on public lands arriving from the north and hiking into the reach for those with a good map and sturdy boots. The map looks like it would be easy to access the stream from highway 14A, but beware that there is a steep dropoff along the face of the Bighorn Mountains.

Legend

- WGFD Aquatic Regions
- Access Roads
- Other Roads
- Perennial Stream
- Instream Flow Filing
- 5th Level HUCs
- Beaver Creek Watershed