

Driving Directions: Start in Cokeville and take highway 232 east out of town through the Smiths Fork valley for about 12 miles. The blacktop ends at the mouth of Coal Creek and the road forks. The Coal Creek segment begins here on the state school section and extends upstream 0.8 miles to its confluence with Sawmill Creek.

Legend

- WGFD Aquatic Regions
- Access Roads
- Other Roads
- Perennial Stream
- Instream Flow Filing
- 5th Level HUCs
- Smiths Fork River Watershed