What Does a Youth Angler Need to Fish in Wyoming?

YOUTH FISHING REGULATIONS

Is the angler under the age 18?
- Yes
  - The angler needs a valid Wyoming fishing license and a conservation stamp if purchasing a 12 month license.
- No
  - The angler must have a valid Wyoming fishing license, but may purchase a 12 month youth fishing license. The angler must also have a conservation stamp if purchasing a 12 month license.

Is the angler under the age 14?
- Yes
  - The angler does NOT need a fishing license or conservation stamp and their creel limit is the same as those requiring licenses.
- No
  - Yes
    - The angler must possess a valid daily or nonresident youth 12 month fishing license - and conservation stamp when purchasing a 12 month license - to catch and possess a full creel limit.
  - No
    - The angler does NOT need a fishing license or conservation stamp if accompanied by an adult possessing a valid Wyoming fishing license. The angler’s creel limit is included in this adult’s creel limit.

Is the angler a Wyoming resident?
- Yes
  - The angler does NOT need a fishing license or conservation stamp if accompanied by an adult possessing a valid Wyoming fishing license. The angler’s creel limit is included in this adult’s creel limit.
- No
  - Visit the Game & Fish website for more information on Wyoming’s fishing regulations.