Get hooked on some adventure this summer!

The Wyoming Game & Fish Department’s popular wildlife conservation and outdoor recreation summer day camp is returning this summer. The camp is for students entering 5th and 6th grade in fall of 2019. Camps are held in many locations across the state from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day. Campers will need to bring a water bottle and a lunch each day. Each camper will receive a Camp Wild T-shirt and journal for participating in the camp.

Locations & Dates:

Sundance - June 4-6 @ Washington Park

Lander - June 11-13 @ Lander City Park: Lion’s Shelter

Cheyenne - June 17-19 @ Cheyenne Botanic Gardens: Children’s Garden

Laramie - June 17-19 @ Happy Jack Recreation Area Trailhead

Green River - June 24-26 @ Green River Game & Fish Office

Dayton - July 1-3 @ Amsden Creek Wildlife Habitat Management Area

Each session will include hands-on learning about wildlife, habitats, aquatic ecology, navigation, team-builders, spincasting or fishing, and archery. Participants will have the opportunity to experience quality time outside while having fun and learning more about Wyoming’s amazing wildlife, habitat, conservation, and outdoor recreation opportunities.

Space is limited, so register now before it’s too late! Deadline to register is May 1. The fee to attend is $60 per child for each 3-day camp. To register, visit https://wgfd.wyo.gov/store/CampWild
