

Mule Creek Ranch Public Access Area

Mule Creek Ranch Public Access Area

Access is restricted to licensed big game hunters with a valid permission slip from the Wyoming Game and Fish Department and their companions. No access is allowed outside the dates on the hunter's permission slip.

Seasons shall be November 1st through January 31st each year.

Permission slips shall be obtained from the Wyoming Game and Fish Department's Internet site, or at any Regional Office.

There shall be no scouting or other access of the area outside the dates on the permission slip.

There shall be no discharge of firearms in the parking area, or in other prohibited areas.

There shall be no discharge of fireworks on any of the property, and open fires and littering are strictly prohibited.

Day use only - There shall be NO overnight camping or parking on private lands.

No ORV's are allowed on the access area.

It is the sportsman's responsibility to determine land boundaries.

Access area boundary will be marked with signs.

This Public Access Area is a Cooperative Effort Between Wyoming Game and Fish Department and Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation