

YOUTH CAMP

Youth Camp offers an overnight camp experience for participants between the ages of twelve and fifteen. This camp, led by Wyoming Game and Fish Department staff and volunteers, is meant to inform campers about career opportunities within the Wyoming Game and Fish Department. Guest speakers will meet with campers to provoke a desire to work outdoors. Participants will also enjoy outdoor recreational activities.

We hope you find the information included in this packet helpful to you. Don't hesitate to reach out to us if you have questions.

ABOUT WHISKEY MOUNTAIN CONSERVATION CAMP

Whiskey Mountain Conservation Camp is located near Trail Lake, approximately ten miles southeast of Dubois, Wyoming. The camp, located on historic bighorn sheep winter range, is situated on Torrey Creek about one mile from the Fitzpatrick Wilderness Trailhead. There is a good possibility of seeing lots of wildlife, such as moose, deer, osprey, and bighorn sheep. The scenery is beautiful, so consider packing binoculars or a camera to capture your amazing surroundings. Included in this packet is a map and directions on how to get to camp. The road into camp is a dirt road, but most passenger vehicles can navigate it without any problems.

The camp address is searchable on Google Maps for directions as well.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Phone Calls

Participants are asked to refrain from bringing their cell phones to camp. There is no cell service on the property, and our goal is for the campers to have an immersive experience. Camp staff have the ability to take calls in case of emergencies.

Dietary Restrictions

All meals are buffet-style and served in the main dining hall. If you have dietary concerns, please be sure they are listed in your registration process so our caterer can accommodate them.

Cabin Assignments

Participants will stay in cabins with running water, heat and indoor toilet facilities, including showers. The beds are large cots. Linens, blankets, and pillows are not provided, so you will need to bring your own pillows, sleeping bags, or sheets/blankets.
